NRSTB Acknowledgement

Dear NRSTB Applicant:

The TANF program administered by the Yurok Tribe, referred to as the Yurok Tribal TANF Program (YTTP), provides limited emergency assistance to eligible needy Native American families with child(ren) and caretakers/relatives caring for Native American child(ren) for episodes of need during natural disasters, pandemics, and state of emergency declarations. YTTP requires this application and supplemental documents to determine the eligibility of your family for emergency services.

NRSTB has a cap of $5,000 per household and is only for non-recurring episodes of emergency pending availability of funds. NRSTB is for a singular crisis episode for families to avoid reliance for ongoing expenses through government funded programs. It is the applicant's responsibility to demonstrate a need. Payments will be provided directly to the applicants chosen vendor(s) with completed W-9 and quote/receipts to address emergency crisis. Payments will not be made directly to the applicant unless under extraordinary circumstances and approved by the TANF Manager. NRSTB applications will be notified by TANF staff regarding all payments. It is imperative that NRSTB applications do not contact the Yurok Tribe Fiscal Department. We keep all information private and secure, as required by law. You have the right to appeal your decision within 10 business days of receipt of denial letter through written correspondence. Upon receipt of the appeal, the TANF Manager has 10 business days to respond to your appeal through written correspondence.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

• Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
